This workshop will provide an overview for two types of adoption processes: (1) adopting from the foster care system and (2) domestic infant adoption. Participants in this workshop will also gain knowledge needed to meet the challenges they may face when taking children into their home and prepare them for the commitment of foster care and adoption.

Participants will:

- Gain knowledge about the process of adoption.
- Gain knowledge of the impact that made by becoming a foster parent in the metro Detroit area.
- Discuss data regarding random residential placement verses those place with relatives.
