WCCCD HEINZ C. PRECHTER EDUCATIONAL AND PERFORMING ARTS CENTER PRESENTS “COOL SUMMER FILM FEST”

Special Showing of Grease to Include Classic Car Cruise, Food Truck and Costume Contest

TAYLOR, MICH. – July 1, 2016 – Wayne County Community College District’s Heinz C. Prechter Educational and Performing Arts Center will feature a variety of films during its Cool Summer Film Fest. The movie fest takes place every Thursday starting June 30 – July 21, 2016 featuring matinee and evening showings. All movies are open to the public at no cost.

The evening showing on Thursday, July 14th features the hit classic starring John Travolta and Olivia Newton John, Grease. The special presentation of Grease also will include a classic car cruise, a food truck and a costume contest featuring a variety of prizes.

“Grease has seen a large revival in its popularity and in the summer months, it gives us a way to bring our theatre students and community members together in a fun-filled, family-friendly event,” said Anthony Arminiak, Downriver Campus President.

The Heinz C. Prechter Educational and Performing Arts Center often showcases national and local artist, theatre groups, musical ensembles and others in a state of the art facility located on the Downriver Campus located at 21000 Northline Road in Taylor.

The Cool Summer Film Fest Includes:

- July 7 – Breakfast At Tiffany’s (matinee 1:00 p.m.)
- July 14 – Grease (evening 7:00 p.m.)
- July 21 – Timbuktu (matinee 1:00 p.m.)
