FORMER PRINCIPAL OF COLUMBINE HIGH SCHOOL TO PROVIDE LESSONS ON LEADERSHIP

Frank DeAngelis to Present Lessons Learned from the School Massacre and the Media Attention in the Aftermath

DETROIT, Mich. – Nov. 13, 2019 – Retired Columbine High School Principal Frank DeAngelis will present “Lessons Learned From Columbine and Beyond Workshop” at the Wayne County Community College District (WCCCD) Downriver Campus on Tuesday, November 26, 2019 from 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. in the Ray Mix Room at 21000 Northline Road in Taylor. The event is presented by WCCCD’s School of Continuing Education and Workforce Development and the District Police Authority.

More than 20 years after the horrific shooting at Columbine High DeAngelis has presented the lessons learned in its aftermath nationwide, and has remained committed to educating parents, educators and students about the tragedy through his personal experiences during the shooting through the aftermath. The presentation will also focus on the leadership lessons learned from dealing with a crisis that also received national media attention.

For more information, please contact WCCCD's School of Continuing Education and Workforce Development at 313-496-2704 or visit the college's website at www.wcccd.edu.

About WCCCD: About WCCCD: WCCCD, the largest urban community college in Michigan, is a multi-campus district with six campus locations, including the Mary Ellen Stempfle University Center, the Michigan Institute for Public Safety Education (MIPSE), and the Curtis L. Ivery Health and Wellness Education Center. WCCCD serves nearly 70,000 students annually across 36 cities and townships and more than 500 square miles. The District is committed to the continued development of new programs, workforce transformation, hosting community-based training sessions and improving student facilities and services.
