The United States Air Force Band of Mid-America Takes EPAC Stage with Concert that Honors Vets
January 19, 2020 at 2:00 p.m.

DETROIT, Mich. – Dec. 16, 2019 – The United States Air Force (USAF) Band of Mid-America, “Shades of Blue,” will perform at the Heinz C. Prechter Educational and Performing Arts Center (EPAC), located at the Wayne County Community College District (WCCCD) Downriver Campus on January 19, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. The Downriver Campus is located at 21000 Northline Road in Taylor. The concert is open to the public at no cost and is a family-friendly, all-ages event.

Shades of Blue is a 15-piece big band jazz ensemble whose music connects communities with military service members, and honors our country’s veterans. Featuring instrumental and vocal soloists, as well as original compositions, the band mixes contemporary jazz composers with the classic sounds of Count Basie or Major Glenn Miller.

For more information, call the box office at 734-374-3200. Tickets for the event may be reserved at <https://shadesofblue.bpt.me>.

About WCCCD: WCCCD, the largest urban community college in Michigan, is a multi-campus district with six campus locations, including the Mary Ellen Stempfle University Center, the Michigan Institute for Public Safety Education (MIPSE), and the Curtis L. Ivery Health and Wellness Education Center. WCCCD serves nearly 70,000 students annually across 36 cities and townships and more than 500 square miles. The District is committed to the continued development of new programs, workforce transformation, hosting community-based training sessions and improving student facilities and services.
